

The Seven of Clubs Person

The Card of Spiritual Knowledge

All Sevens are highly spiritual cards but it is up to the individual to manifest this spirituality and to turn negativity into accomplishment. The Seven of Clubs challenge rests in the negative aspects of the mind which are worry, doubt and pessimism. They have much inherent inspiration and insight, but when they don't follow it, Saturn's influence brings much despair and sometimes depression. They have power to overcome their problems and to attain the fame and recognition they secretly desire, but they must apply themselves diligently.

They are likely to have large sums of money at different times in their life, but often they spend it as fast as they get it. They are not the best money managers. All their difficulties in life can be traced directly to their thoughts. So the Seven of Clubs, more than any other card, has a great responsibility to maintain positive, healthy thoughts. Any contact with spiritual thoughts or ideals is sure to have a positive effect on them and is highly recommended.

Developing honesty and integrity is part of the Seven of Clubs challenge. If they let their desire for success override their integrity they will suffer, especially in the areas of love and family.

Some of the Seven of Clubs Issues Concerning Relationships

The Seven of Clubs person has neither bad nor good karma in the area of love. The true story of their love life comes as a result of how they handle the other areas of their life. The good news is that if they apply themselves, they have more chances than any other card in the deck to attain mastery of their emotions and romantic involvements.

They have some karma to be sure, and sometimes this karma may be reflected in learning to let go of personal attachments to others or in creating a positive attitude about their partner as well as the rest of their life. They always operate better if they are married and will sooner or later make that commitment and be increased by it.

If they do attain the fame they seek, they are more tempted with indecision in their personal life and in the choice of a mate. This can often result in remarriage.

Nine of Hearts as Your Planetary Ruler

This ruling card adds a compassionate element to your nature, often inspiring you to do some good for the world. Others may call upon you to listen to their problems as you are a good listener and counselor. However, you are also very stubborn and fixed and others may find this annoying at times. This will be noticed more in your own personal relationships. You must not try to save your partner. This is one area in which your compassion and universal love doesn't produce good results. This card also tells us that you may feel at times that you have lost many loves in your life. However, you also have the ability to feel connected on a universal level, free of all personal concerns and problems.
