Introduction

Welcome to your relocated chart report.

Your relocated chart is a horoscope cast for a different location to your place of birth. The zodiacal positions of the planets remain the same as in your natal chart, but their positions in the houses change.

In days past, most people tended to remain close to where they were born. This is not the case today; transcontinental and international travel is commonplace. The purpose of a relocated natal chart is to reveal the influences you are likely to experience in different locations. The interpretations in the report can show you what to expect from the new location. It is an invaluable tool for planning holiday or business trips and can be very useful when considering setting up home somewhere else.

As well as interpreting the planets in the houses, your relocation report also incorporates the Astro-Locality-Map (ALM) based on Astro*Carto*Graphy (R) (A*C*G) popularised by Jim Lewis, and Direction Lines based on the Local Space Astrology (R) (LS) method developed by Michael Erlewine.

The Astro-Locality-Map superimposes planetary data on to a map of the world and shows where each of the planets in a birth chart are actually crossing the meridian or horizon. The geographical locations of the planetary lines represent places where the individual can expect to experience the effects of the planet under observation.

Direction Lines are drawn through the birthplace in the direction of each of the planets. These lines extend around the entire Earth forming great circles. A planet's quality, energy or power is experienced anywhere along the length of the line.

ALM and Direction lines running through or close to your relocated position will indicate how the place will affect you. For example, a Jupiter line will increase your sense of optimism and chances of success, whereas a Saturn line is more likely to be hard going and restrictive. In addition, Aspects and Midpoints can be used with planetary lines in order to fine-tune the interpretation.

Parans (Planetary Crossings) can also be considered. These represent a merging of two planetary energies at the degree of latitude the intersection occurs, which, of course, may correspond to your relocated place. Additionally, if a planetary Direction line crosses an ALM line a Destiny Crossing is said to occur.

Finally, it is important to take the Distance Orbs into account. The closer a planetary line is to the relocated place the more powerful it is likely to be.

Relocated Ascendant and Midheaven

Ascendant in Pisces

You are extraordinarily sensitive here. You pick up on the mood of the environment and the feelings of others constantly. Sometimes your sensitivity will overwhelm and physically exhaust you; even make you physically sick. You may occasionally need to take "time out" on retreat or in seclusion. You tend to dream more here and can be somewhat impractical. A down-to-earth partner can help you keep your practical affairs in order. There can be an attraction to intoxicants and stimulants here, plus a danger of aimless drifting.

Midheaven in Sagittarius

You aspire to great things here and may establish a reputation as a teacher or learned person. Professionally, you may be suited to careers within the legal, education, travel and publishing sectors, or even theology. Your career could involve a lot of mobility and travel. You advocate learning in the home and encourage open communication in the family.
